“Burgundy makes you think of silly things, Bordeaux makes you talk of them and Champagne makes you do them.”

-Jean A. Brillat-Savarin, French Gastronomer (1755-1826)

Shannon Vineyards Semillon, Elgin Valley, South Africa 2015

£39

Shannon's vineyards are situated in the Elgin Valley, within the Kogelberg Biosphere- South Africa's first, is a UNESCO protected region which contains hundreds of unique plant species. The Elgin Valley which has long been regarded as the apple and pear centre of South Africa, now has some of the country's most highly regarded winemakers establishing vineyards in the area, testament to its obvious winemaking potential. Shannon's Sémillon vineyards are planted in a small 0.5ha parcel of Table Mountain Sandstone, about eight miles away from the cooling influence of the Atlantic Ocean; with temperatures here are similar to those of Bordeaux. Selected parcels of grapes undergo some skin contact, prior to fermentation in barrel using the natural yeasts. The finished wine is matured in new French oak barrels for three months with bâtonnage practiced fortnightly. It shows a very distinctive musky nose, with notes of ginger, lime zest and quinine; the palate is full and rounded finishing with a saline minerality alongside spice and citrus.

Auxey- Duresses 1er Cru "Les Ecusseaux", Domaine Jessiaume, Burgundy, France 2011

£75

This classic white Burgundy comes from a small parcel of 0.31ha in the Premier Cru Vineyard of Les Ecusseaux in Auxey Duresses. The wines are aged in French oak barrels for 12 months prior to resting in stainless steel tanks for a period of 5 months. Underneath the Domaine lays a cellar- labyrinth holding a collection of over 100.000 bottles dating back as far as 1908. The wine shows a well developed stone fruit character with toasty notes and freshness. On the palate apricot and lemon-cream, vanilla notes and very defined minerality.

Il Fauno di Arcanum, Arcanum, Tuscany, Italy 2010

£70

The estate traces its roots to the pre-Roman Etruscan civilization, and the inspiration for the Arcanum label comes from an ancient statue located on the estate. Il Fauno, the mythological Roman god of nature, the countryside and the woods, watches over the estate and acts as its protector. The Jackson family purchased the Tenuta di Arceno estate in 1994, with its sprawling 2,500 acres, of which only 223 are planted to vine. The wine is a typical Bordeaux blend of Merlot, Cabernet Franc, Cabernet Sauvignon and Petit Verdot aged in French oak barrels. A truly elegant wine with aromas of cherry tart, pomegranate, lavender and cedar wood. A truly remarkable example of a Super Tuscan.

Purgatori, Torres, Costers del Segre, Spain 2013

Purgatori- the state of suffering inhabited by the souls of sinners who are expiating their sins before going to heaven. As far back as 1780, the monks of the Montserrat abbey carried out their penance at the Desterrats estate. The area was known for its extreme climate and harsh conditions. Their task: working the land to provide food for the diocese. Their legacy: discovering a new terroir and a superlative wine. The legend: Enormous barrels vanishing mysteriously. Some said it was the angels taking them to heaven making the monks pay for their sins. Today the winery is part of the Torres Family and the wine a classic example of the Costers del Segre region with a blend of Garnacha, Carinene and Syrah.
